Each vendor must comply with the requirements contained in the Request for Proposal. Deviation from the requirements may result in rejection of a proposal.

Non-acceptance of any proposal will not imply any criticism of the proposal or convey an indication that the proposed equipment was deficient.

2.11 NEGOTIATION OF PROPOSAL

The vendor is advised that under the terms of this RFP, Washington County reserves the right to conduct negotiations with the vendor that presents the one proposal determined lowest and most responsible by Washington County after initial review of the responses received to this RFP. If such negotiations are conducted, the following conditions shall apply.

- 2.11.1 Only the terms, conditions, and offers in the vendor's original proposal shall be subject to negotiations. The requirements of the RFP shall remain the same.
- 2.11.2 If Washington County is unable to negotiate to an acceptable conclusion, Washington County reserves the right to negotiate with the vendor determined by Washington County to have presented the second lowest and responsible proposal.
- 2.11.3 If multiple proposals are determined to be too close to justify negotiations with only one vendor, concurrent negotiations with more than one vendor may be held at Washington County's discretion. Vendors are cautioned that Washington County is under no obligation whatsoever to conduct negotiations with any or all vendors, and reserves the right to award a contract based upon the most responsible proposal received without modifications or clarifications.

Washington County reserves the right to award a contract in whole or in part on any proposal. Contracts will be awarded to those vendors whose proposals are determined to be the most advantageous to Washington County. Award of contract may be made without discussion after proposals are received. The contents of the proposal of the successful vendor will become contractual obligations in any ensuing contract.

No contract or agreement may contain an indemnification clause; if such a clause is present in any contract or agreement, such shall be deemed stricken and null and void.

Likewise, no contract or agreement may contain an arbitration clause; if such clause is present in any contract or agreement such shall be deemed stricken and null and void.
